Childhood flu programme for Year 1, 2 and 3 children

The childhood flu programme is a national programme which is being delivered in all the primary schools across England, from September to February every year. NHS England North (Lancashire) commissioned IntraHealth to deliver this programme.

In view of the current flu circulation in the community IntraHealth are offering a further opportunity for eligible children in year groups 1, 2 & 3 to receive the vaccination at a local community venue.

The sessions listed below are drop in sessions and no appointment is necessary:

IntraHealth Offices - Tuesday 24th January '17
between 3.30pm – 6.30pm

Suite 3a-3c, Ribble House, Meanygate, Bamber Bridge,
Preston. PR5 6UP.

Acorn Primary Health Care Centre - Wednesday 25th January
'17 between 3.30pm – 6.30pm

421 Blackburn Road, Accrington. BB5 1RT.

Burscough Health Centre - Thursday 26th January '17 between 3.30pm – 6.30pm

Stanley Court, Burscough. L40 4LA.

If you require any further information, please email:

rachel.lynych@intrahealth.co.uk

Please can we remind parents to call school on the first day of your child's absence. If you do not provide a reason for your child's absence then it will be marked as an unauthorised absence. 5 or more unauthorised absences in a school year can incur a penalty notice from LCC. Thank you.
