Dear Parents and Carers,

I'm writing to let you know that the vacancy for our new Headteacher has now been formally advertised. This is an important step in the process of appointing the right person to lead our school and continue the outstanding work already taking place.

The post is being advertised widely to attract a strong field of applicants, and the governing body (including myself) will be overseeing the recruitment process carefully. We are committed to finding a Headteacher who shares our school values and who will work closely with staff, pupils and families.

We will keep you updated as the process progresses and let you know about the next steps in due course.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support.

Mrs Toor

Co-Headteacher
